A DOZEN WERE INJURED.

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT IN INDIANA.

A Baggage-master's Remarkable Escape
—Montana Road Fires—The Day's List of Casualties.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 15.—Last evening 5 o'clock the north-bound passenger train on the Fort Branch division of the Evansville & Terre Haute railway met with an accident by the breaking down of a small bridge twelve miles north of Mount Vernon, which resulted in the serious injury of a dozen or more people. The train consisted of two passenger coaches, a baggage car, and a flat car. The locomotive got safely over the trestle work, but the baggage car broke through and was thrown off the rails and turned over, the bridge falling twenty feet, while the rear coach turned down the embankment.

Baggage-master James C. Henderson, Ky., was badly bruised and had one of the most remarkable escapes from a horrible death on record. He was knocked out of the side door of car to the ground below the trestle work, where he lay stunned and unable to move. He fell in a sort of depression, while the car he just rolled over him with a terrific crash.

Mrs. Glaze of Princeton was badly bruised and injured about the head. Miss Hopkins of Ridgeway, Ill., was injured internally and cut about the head and face. The injured were conveyed to Fort Branch and everything was done for their comfort.

FALLING WALLS.

One Man Crushed to Death and Another Fatally Injured.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Joseph Papp, an Italian laborer, was instantly killed, and Nicholas Stever, driver of a beer wagon, was fatally injured by the falling of a wall of the Burton block, corner of Clinton and Van Buren streets, at 9 o'clock this morning. The building, which is a six-story brick, was partially destroyed by fire about six weeks ago and the walls were left standing while workmen were engaged in clearing away the debris in the streets and rebuilding the interior of the structure.

This morning Joseph Papp was at work on the ground on the Van Buren street side of the building when, without any warning, a section of the sixth-story wall, about forty feet in length, toppled over and fell to the ground. Papp was buried beneath the brick and stone and was horribly mangled. Nicholas Stever, a driver, was passing the building with his team and wagon at the time the wall fell. The falling mass caught horses, wagon, and driver beneath its weight. Stever was frightfully hurt.

MONTANA PRAIRIE FIRES.

Extensive Conflagrations Raging in the Vicinity of Miles City.

MILES CITY, Mont. Aug. 15.—The prairie north and southeast of Miles City are on fire. The area covers several thousand acres. The bodies of timber to the north and south of the town are separated from each other, but seem to have caught fire simultaneously. A body of men from this place is preparing to go out and fight the fire. A heavy smoke is hanging over the town, resulting from fires, and the heat is very perceptible. Extensive prairie fires are raging in this country below Fallon, traveling toward the north, and it is feared the range in these parts will be lost.

Cloud Burst in New Jersey.

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 15.—A terrific cloud burst occurred here this morning. Streets were washed out, cellars flooded, and the sewers choked so that the water spouted out of the manholes to a height of ten feet. On Hamburg avenue the sidewalks were washed away and a woman was swept three blocks toward the river before she was rescued by three men. In some places the water in the streets was four feet deep. Paterston City had a similar experience.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

A Father Quarrels With and Fatally Stabs His Son.

WELSEA, Mass., Aug. 15.—Another fearful murder has been committed in Michigan. A farmer named S. Soney, living two miles from here in a southerly direction, quarreled with his son Harvard, over a trifling matter last night, and stabbed the boy in the forehead, inflicting a fatal wound. Soney was under the influence of liquor when he committed the murder. The young man was married and highly respected. The father has been arrested and locked up. The affair caused great excitement, which is intensified by the great number of murders that have been committed in the State during the last few days.

Beckham's Pills act like magic on a weak stomach.

State and Healthy in Old Age.

What is more beautiful than an ancient tree clothed with an ample robe of verdure. Apt is the comparison between a man and an old man or woman infused with health and vigor. The sine qua non, the indispensable condition of vigorous youth, robust manhood and a virile old age, is sound digestion. Without the firm support of the healthy seat that should attend it, no more beneficial and agreeable contributor to the attainment of a hale old age, and efficient means of counteringacting the infirmities that too often attend life's decline, can be found than the safe and certain Beckham's Pills.

Diets, dyspeptic symptoms, a tendency to kidney complaint, nervous inquietude and rheumatic trouble and overwork are nullified by it, and it affords efficient protection to the system against malarial infection. Give it a thorough trial.

FROM DESPAIR TO JOY.

The Painful Story of a Lovely Lady,
Who, After a Year, Finally Secured Her Happiness.

Mrs. Morton D. Harlan, residing at No. 55 West 24th Street, New York, has passed through a most wonderful experience.

Mrs. Harlan had a happy home and through her devotion to her home duties over-taxed her strength. She became depressed, nervous, entire lack of energy in life, and finally a cough at night and morning which grew worse each day. Upon examination in the hospital, it was found that she had small dark circles under her eyes and that she was growing thinner and losing weight in life. The physician advised that she continue for months. Finally she became was confined to her bed the greater part of the time. Her eyes were very dark and sunken. Her face was pale and her lips were blue. Her hands were pinched and drawn, and there was a gloomy look in her eyes. Mr. Ward knew that his wife was dying, and his heart was broken for her friend. At her earnest request, he called for a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and gave her a box for consumption was cured. At the start very little effect was seen, so he gave her another and in a few days she had gained an ironed had the disease made, but by degrees she began to feel better. Her appetite, then her strength, then her color, then her health, and she is now in perfect physical condition. She has a new lease of life, and is now the use of Dr. Acker's English Hemorrhoid for Consumption.

The lesson of this simple story should be plain to all. No man or woman can afford to neglect the first symptoms of consumption. It is a disease so subtle and which becomes so terrible that it is often fatal.

men who were on the verge of the grave on consumption but who are well and happy today. It is sold universally.

The alleged cowboy was brought up before Judge Patterson this morning and fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. After paying the fine and costs he mounted his mustang to proceed home and was no sooner seated on the horse than he was thrown to the ground. He made a second attempt and disappeared up Main street.

The dance at the Modern Woodman's picnic yesterday afternoon and evening was well attended and all present report a pleasant time. The boats left the city loaded with passengers until late in the evening. Old and young joined in the festivities at the park without reserve and the party did not break up until after midnight. Although the Modern Woodmen have been organized in this city but a comparatively short time, yet they have a large society, and are rapidly adding new members to the list.

Died, last evening at 11 o'clock, Mrs. Anderson, wife of J. B. Anderson, 204 Lincoln street, fourth ward, of typhoid pneumonia. Her mother and only daughter, Gertrude, who were in New Jersey, were notified of her death by telegraph and will probably be present at the funeral. Mrs. Anderson was a very conscientious lady who possessed many friends in the city. At the time of her death she was but thirty-six years of age. She leaves a husband and three children, two sons and a daughter, Charles H., Gertrude B. and Johnnie Anderson, to mourn her death. The bereaved family have the sympathy of their many friends in this city.

An Ellsworth Fisher and Arlie McGee were driving to the city from the fair grounds this noon, the burr came off from the front axle of the buggy, letting the wheel off, which fell to the ground. The horse became frightened at the sudden dropping of the buggy and commenced kicking furiously. Mr. McGee was thrown out of the side of the buggy and severely kicked by the horse. Mr. Fisher was thrown headlong to the road, tearing his clothes considerably, but he escaped without serious injury. Dr. W. H. Palmer, who was driving by at the time, took Mr. McGee into his buggy and conveyed him to the office, where he was cared for his wounds. No bones were fractured, but the bones of his leg just below the knee were severely bruised and splintered and may prove more serious than was at first supposed. The thrills of the buggy were demolished and the harness badly broken. The horse escaped injury with the exception of a few scratches.

This is a hard town for shows," said a theatre goer at Lappin's Opera house last night, "You could hardly count the number of shows who have not had some sort of a misfortune in this city. The audience was a little disappointed last night at the failure of the company to produce the advertised performance. But when it was generally understood that three or four members of the company had unceremoniously left the city to fill other engagements, the management had the sympathy of all. The 'Servant's Holiday' and 'Americans Abroad' were very creditably presented last evening in place of the 'Hidden Hand' which it had been their intention to play. Mr. Harry Jackson recited 'Shamus O'Brien,' which was heartily applauded, and Mr. Thomas Peesley as the 'count' etc., completely captivated the audience. The company was advertised to play 'A Mountain King' this evening, but their funds gave out. Three or four members of the troupe left the city this morning and the manager took the afternoon train for Chicago.

GATHERING OF CLANS.

The Jolly Scotchmen are Gathered at the Fair Grounds.

CONTESTING FOR PRIZES.

A Large Crowd Present to Witness the Interesting Games and Pastimes.

Fears were entertained yesterday that it might be a cold and disagreeable day for the Caledonian picnic to-day, as the storms of Tuesday night had cooled the atmosphere somewhat, and threatening clouds hovered around the horizon nearly all day and well into last night, but all fears were dispelled this morning, when early risers beheld a clear sky and a very gentle west wind, indicating a perfect day for the exercises at the fair ground. Early in the morning people commenced coming into the city by teams, and the numbers were largely increased by each train arriving. Large numbers of Scotchmen coming from Milwaukee, Madison, and cities along the line of the railroads. The Bower City Band was out in full force and discoursed some beautiful music on the streets previous to going to the fair ground; here and there on the walks could be seen well-tailored Scotchmen dressed in full Highland costume, representing the Rob Roy, the Campbell and the McElders clans; then, as the music of the Bower City Band died away, as they proceeded toward the fair grounds, the music of the bag-pipes was heard, and the streets were alive with people, all seemingly taking an interest in the occasion which had called them together—the annual picnic and prize contest of the Rock County Caledonian Society. It was a merry day, indeed, for the jolly Scotchmen as well as for many of their friends of other nationalities.

At the fair ground, Dr. James Mills, president of the society, appeared the happiest man in Rock county, and he would not have given his position for all the unperformed claims in Sugar river, notwithstanding the fabulous reports concerning the value of their contents. Indeed, he was happy, and was using every endeavor, seconded by other officers, to make the crowd feel the same way. He was successful in a great measure, and those who did not have a merry time cannot charge it up against Dr. Mills or the Caledonian society.

The games were announced to commence at ten o'clock, but owing to belated trains or other causes, there was some little delay. Many professional athletes are on the grounds to contest, and the sports are being witnessed by a large crowd of people who seem to take much interest in the different games. The programme is a very long one, there being something like forty prizes offered in different classes, embracing nearly every class of athletic and gymnastic sports and pastimes.

The several committees having the games in charge are on the grounds and using every endeavor to have each contest take place in order and to the satisfaction of all—contestants and spectators.

The 200 yard race for boys under twelve years of age was the first on the programme. There were 14 entries; first prize was won by Henry Scott, second by John Mooney, and third by Orton Salford.

There were 11 entries in the 14 pound putting stone contest. The winners were P. J. Morrison last, his score being 32, 30 and 29½ feet. Tom Butters 24—25½, 23, and 29 feet.

A. M. Bowen 31—25½, 28½ and 27½ feet. This was an interesting contest.

In the one-fourth mile race there were 13 entries; the winners were Ray Booth, 1st, J. Croft, 2nd, Geo. McLay, 3rd.

One heat in the pony race was run late in the forenoon. This was something entirely new and delighted the spectators.

The wheelbarrow race was won by Ray Booth, Carl Fuhrer and Frank Noonan, respectively.

The barrel race provided excellent amusement for all. Frank Noonan captured the first prize; Eddie Salaman the second, which was a copy of the Weekly Gazette for one year, and Allie Wheeler came in third.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the forenoon's programme was throwing the light hammer contest. There were 11 entries. It was evidently going to be a pretty even thing between D. H. Rust, the insurance man and Tom Butters. Tom got in some heavy throws but Mr. Rust, as seen by the score, was too much for him. His greatest throw was 75 feet and 1 inch. This is probably the best throw of the kind ever made on the fair ground. Rust gave first money to Butters. The score is as follows:

D. H. Rust, 70 ft. 7 in. 74 ft. 1 in. 75 ft. 1 in.

Tom Butters, 71 ft. 10 in. 73 ft. 8 in. 68 ft. 9 in.

P. J. Morrison, 64 ft. 5 in. 65 ft. 2 in. 61 ft. 7 in.

Wm. Cheyne, 65 ft. 6 in. 65 ft. 6 in. 61 ft. 7 in.

This completes the games up to two o'clock this afternoon. Many more people came to the city on the noon train and the attendance this afternoon is very large. Dancing will be conducted during the entire evening. The result of the contests will be published in full in to-morrow evening's Gazette.

Does the Earth Really Move?

Science says that it does, but we cannot help wondering sometimes if there isn't some mistake about it, when we see how stubbornly certain old fogies cling to their musty and antiquated ideas. It was believed once that consumption was incurable, and although it has been clearly demonstrated that it is not, those old-fashioned physicians close their eyes and put their hands to their ears and refuse to abandon the theory. But for all that the world moves on, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery continues to rescue sufferers from consumptive graves. It is a sure cure for this dreadful disease, if taken in time. All scrofulous diseases—and consumption is included in the list—yield to it.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.
